

Section 11.2: In-House Information Resources

The State has a cadre of resources available to grant program managers. Some are more familiar than others. This section will detail the resources available and the roles in grants administration. These resources include several subject matter experts within the General Accounting Office (GAO), the Office of Grants and Federal Resources (GFR) as well as other state resources.