

Chapter 10: High-Risk Grantee Designation Procedures

This chapter discusses the policies and procedures that grant program managers can enact to designate a subrecipient as high-risk. Section 10.1 provides general information regarding grant program managers making recommendation for high-risk designations. Section 10.2 describes the process for making recommendations for and tracking of high-risk designations. Section 10.3 describes the process for removing a subrecipient from high-risk designation list.